

Garden-Party (Anthropology of Carefreeness)

France is going bad, France is collapsing, France has lost its dignity: its values and virtues have lost their meaning, selfishness and despair has conquered the soul of all (of) the French... All ? No, there's still a caste resisting that crisis, fighting that social gloom: the Bourgeoisie ! This Elite will give us a lesson of Savoir-Vivre, through different rural and naive scenes, an invitation to a promenade of denial, an anthropology of carefreeness.
